

BibleWay Publishing is a non-profit Bible ministry founded by Randolph Dunn, dedicated to making Bible lessons accessible to anyone interested in learning more about God and His will, and in proclaiming Christ's message of forgiveness and redemption. This is facilitated through its website, biblewaypublishing.com, along with the Life Abundant magazine and the flipbook Bible lessons provided by the International Bible Knowledge Institute (IBKI).

The curriculum at IBKI consists of five courses, totaling approximately fifty books. These courses are available to everyone, with the option to earn course certificates and an IBKI diploma upon completion when studying under an instructor. IBKI's offerings are accessible in English on thebiblewayonline.com, in Spanish on elcaminobiblico.com, and in several Asian languages on thebibleway.net.

BibleWay Publishing grants permission for individuals to share, download, and reproduce its lessons in their entirety for non-commercial purposes, but prohibits any alterations to the content or charging fees when sharing. It is important to note that the International Bible Knowledge Institute is not accredited, and there is no tuition for its courses.
