President's Statement

Bible Way Publishing is a non-profit Bible ministry focusing on the websites and digital books of the International Bible Knowledge Institute (IBKI). The objective of IBKI is to make Bible lessons available to anyone interested in learning and teaching God's will.

We recommend that you study your Bible to determine the accuracy of what is stated in these lessons or those from any other source. Opinions often find their way into audio, digital, video, printed lessons, Bible commentaries; and, in the teachings of preachers, ministers, pastors, priests, and rabbis.

The comments presented in the International Bible Knowledge Institute's lessons are the opinions of the authors or compilers. You should always verify the comments, opinions, and teachings of all Bible material since it is YOUR responsibility to seek, know and do the will of God.

To check the truth of any teaching, read different Bible translations, and consult Bible dictionaries and lexicons to learn the meaning of unfamiliar words or phrases.

Be careful with dictionary definitions, as the meaning of words and phrases changes over time. Dictionaries give the meaning of words and phrases from the original language to current usage, which often differ in meaning. Also, multiple Greek words can be translated into one English word, which can distort the original meaning. For Example, in Ephesians 4 the word "and" in apostles and prophets was translated from the Greek word dé meaning to separate apostles from prophets, two functions. Whereas "and" in pastors and teachers was translated from the Greek word kaí meaning to connect pastors with teachers, one function.

May you allow God to guide you in your study of His Holy Word, the Bible.

Bible Way Publishing grants permission to download and reproduce for non-commercial purposes their lessons in their entirety. Feel free to share but not change lessons, sell or charge.

GABRIEL

He is referred to twice in the Old Testament, and referred to as "the man Gabriel," because having the appearance of a man. In the first instance, he appeared to the prophet Daniel to explain a vision he had seen but did not understand (Daniel 8:1-19). In the second instance, he likewise appeared to Daniel, this time in response to prayer and to instruct him further in regard to the vision he had seen. (9:20-23)

Gabriel is likewise mentioned twice in the New Testament. In the first instance, he appeared to Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist, to announce to him the birth of the latter, stating "I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings" (Luke 1:5-23). And six months later he was sent from God to "a city of Galilee, named Nazareth," to a virgin named Mary, to announce to her that she would conceive by the power of the Holy Spirit and give birth to a son, whom she was to call Jesus, and who would be called the Son of the Most-High. (1:26-38)

MICHAEL

After a certain vision of Daniel, one was sent by God to explain to him the significance of it, yet that one had been delayed by the prince of the kingdom of Persia; but, said he to Daniel, "Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me." And before departing, he told him, "there is none that holds with me against these [the prince of Persia and the prince of Greece], but Michael your prince." (see Daniel 10:1-21, with Michael's name mentioned in vs.13,21.) And in 12:1, he is mentioned again by name, and described as "the great prince who stands for the children of thy people" — Daniel's people, the holy ones of the Jews.

In the New Testament, in Jude 9, he is called "Michael the archangel" (the highest level of angel), and describes as having contended with the devil and "disputed about the body of Moses." And, finally, in Revelation 12;7-9, we read: "And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and, the deceiver of the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him." All this was seen by John in a vision, while on the Isle of Patmos.
